

Petr V. MOROZOV,

Professor, Department of Psychiatry, Faculty of Advanced Medical Studies, Russian National Medical Research University, Moscow.

Board Member/Zonal Representative for Eastern Europe, World Psychiatric Association;

Ambassador in Russia, European College of Neuropsychopharmacology;

Member of the Council, European Psychiatric Association;

Head of the Committee on work with Early Career Psychiatrists, Board Member, Russian Society of Psychiatrists;

Editor-in-Chief, Publisher: P.B.Gannushkin Journal “Psychiatry and Psychopharmacotherapy”- №1 in Russia, Journals: “Psychiatric Diary”, “Psychiatric Disturbances in General Medicine”.

Senior Medical Officer (Biological Psychiatry and Psychopharmacology), Division of Mental Health, World Health Organization (1979-1986).

Member of the EC of the European College of Neuropsychopharmacology (1987-1989);

Author of more than 200 papers and 4 books, among them:

“Research on the Viral Hypothesis of Mental Disorders” (Karger), “Viruses, Immunity and Mental Health” (Plenum).